Outside the Garden Box

Our garden is growing furiously and we have already begun to grace your plates with these fresh picked treasures. Claytonia and a combination of baby green lettuces have been tossed into our Mixed Greens Salad!

We are now anxiously waiting the snap peas, pole beans and green beans to begin to make an appearance. Our tomato plants and fresh leeks aren't too far behind!

Come in and ask your server what's been fresh picked!

Saturday Brunch and Cocktails

The sun is shining, the weather is beautiful and it's your day off...what could get better than joining us for brunch and our house-made cocktails! Come see what we are featuring Saturdays from 11:30- 4pm!

Backyard Bar-B-Q on the Deck

Has the weather put you in the mood for some of that backyard picnic food? Well, we are here to tantalize your taste buds with our Baby Back Ribs, BBQ Chicken and House Smoked Brisket complete with all the trimmin's.

Mixologist's Marvels

Roast Pineapple Aged Rum: You got it, that's our newest addition to our house infused liquor list! Come try out our Roast Pineapple Old Fashioned, it's light and subtly sweet with a nice crisp finish.

Let the Countdown Begin! Our Barrel is back! We have filled it with Highest Son of Bourye Whiskey, Sweet Vermouth and bitters...they are aging gracefully upon our top shelf.
